Mrs. Buhlert left Saturday for Napoleon, where she will spend a few days and then go to Wyandotte, Mich., to visit friends.

John Davis marketed a hog Thursday last, which was born in April last, and weighed when sold 275 lbs. That's pretty good for a seven months pig.

The banana peel is not always a joking matter. Mrs. Bridget Murphy of New York City stepped on one of them, fell, and died from her injuries.

We have on sale the largest and most attractive assortment of underwear for ladies, children, men and boys shown at any time.

Billy Tietjen has been making many good improvements in his brewery property during this year. He believes in improvements and keeping up with the times.

Mrs. and Mrs. R. W. Cahill entertained to-day Mr. Sam Heller and wife, Miss Kate Heller and brother Frank, of Toledo. Of course they will all eat of the Thanksgiving Turkey.

Red squirrels are the worst enemies quail and pheasants have. One squirrel will devour a whole nestful of eggs at a meal. Gunners should remember this and try to exterminate them.

Street Commissioner Cameron should go over the city and gather up the rubbish left from street crossings recently put in, and cart it off. It is unsightly and gives the place a ragged appearance.

From December 1st till the 15th, I will get in the finest line of Holiday goods that has ever been seen in Napoleon. Drop in the store and look at some of the new novelties in the jewelry line.

A certain young dude of Napoleon was heard singing the following song the other evening:

Some joys of life make me most sad
When I think of how I miss 'em.
The girls I want to kiss are those Who don't want me to kiss 'em.

From now on until the 1st of January most of our subscribers will come to town to pay their taxes. This gives them a good opportunity to call and pay what is due on their subscription to the Northwest, and a year in advance. There is much due us upon subscription, and we need the money.

There used to be an old nursery play called "button, button, who's got the button." That game could not be played to-day among grown up men, because nearly everyone wears a badge button of some kind, emblematic of the society or order to which he belongs. The emblematic button business is having a great run just at present.

See our Dress Goods and Flannels—a big line to select from at rock bottom prices.

That good old Democrat of Flatrock, G. F. Rothenberger, and his better half, are enjoying a visit with friends in the eastern part of the state and Buffalo, N. Y.

We bought all our boots and shoes at the old prices before the advance in leather, and it will pay you to see our goods and get our prices before you buy.

F. A. Lyons, General Western Agt. for the Combination Suit Presser Co. is here for a few days establishing a trade in the line. The presser is a practical machine and worthy of your investigation.

It is said that if you wish to rid your house of rats, sprinkled red pepper on the floor, just at the holes. The rat comes out, steps on the pepper, cleans his feet with his tongue, and leaves your house never to re-enter.

The trade for Christmas is starting in early this year and some of my goods which are only on the road here have already been taken. Better call in before it is too late.

The bridge of the Lima Northern railroad across Sugar Creek, three miles north of Lima, has been completed and the tracklayers are now laying two miles per day. The track will be completed to Ottawa by December 10.

The membership of the Royal Arcanum lodge in Napoleon is steadily increasing. Four new members were taken in last week, increasing the number to fifty. No better mutual benefit association exists than the Royal Arcanum.

We have just closed out a leading manufacturers line of Misses Long Cloaks—sized mostly 8 and 10 years of age, which we are offering at one half their real worth. A trip now while the assortment is complete may save several lacer on.

Persons have commenced selecting their holiday presents. It is not good policy to defer making your attractions public until a few days before Christmas. This is a fast age and the "early bird catches the worm," and the advertiser who first offers attractions to the public secures the purchasers.

The Buckeye heart will throb with a certain amount of pleasure when he hears that "Ohio-day" is to be celebrated with greater splendor in the Atlanta exposition than the day of any other state. Wednesday, December 4th, has been set aside for that purpose by the exposition management. Gov. McKinley and staff will attend.

You don't have to look long among our dress goods before you run up against some surprisingly low prices. Just see what we are doing with serges, wool mixtures silk and wool fine novelties, crepon and the like.

At Mansfield the young ladies of one of the churches gave a social which had the quality of novelty. It was called a photograph social, and the young ladies sold boxes containing luncheon for two, together with the photograph of a young lady in each box. The purchaser of the box must eat supper with the lady whose likeness appeared upon the enclosed picture.

The most beautiful holiday displays ever seen in Napoleon will be made this year by our business houses. Some of the shop windows are already giving forth suggestive hints of the coming of Christmas and of the big stock of holiday marvels that will be brought to full view in December. Napoleon dealers boasted of a big trade last season but they expect a much bigger one this year and so they have all hastened to provide themselves with almost inexhaustible supplies of goods ranging through all grades of beauty and prices.

The twenty-third annual meeting of the Northwestern Ohio Teachers' Association will be held in Tiffin to-day and tomorrow. A very elaborate program on school matters has been arranged.

A scientist declares that professional gamblers shorten their lives by suppressing their emotions. They can also produce the same result by dealing from the bottom of the deck or hiding aces in their sleeves.

Kindness is never lost. Witty remarks are as easily lost as the pearls slipping off a broken string, but a word of kindness is seldom spoken in vain. It is a seed which, even when dropped by chance, springs up into a flower.

The Wabash has placed in service three postal cars built at the St. Charles car shops. The car is 60 feet long, built without end platforms, rests on six-wheel trucks, has the triple Westinghouse brake, the ends are framed with iron and so constructed that in case of collision the damage in the way of telescoping is greatly lessened. In every respect the cars are complete.

Economy is something that everybody tries to practice, and yet just a little oversight will sometimes rob the most frugal and thrifty family of a year's savings. You want to do as J. P. Hickmann, of Monticello, Ga. did. He writes, "For six years I have kept Simmons Liver Regulator in my house; and used it in my family and have had no need for a doctor. I have been as healthy children as you can find."

A lady mail carrier is not met with every day of the year, by any means, but McDonald county has a lady mail carrier in the person of Miss Eliza Haines. She carries the United States mail from Pineville to Rocky Comfort, a distance of twenty-two miles. She makes the trip from one point to the other every day except Sunday, making three round trips a week, delivering the mail on good time. She drives a two horse hack, and, besides carrying the mail she carries passengers and express, and attends to the business promptly and accurately. Miss Haines is about twenty-one years old, tall and slender, and is considered good looking. Her features denote a firm, courageous character. Her attire differs very little from that worn by other women excepting her hat, which has a broad rim, resembling somewhat the hat worn by cow boys. She carries a six-shooter on the seat by her side.

DAVIS—STREMLER.—In Napoleon, Ohio, Nov. 21, 1895, at the parsonage, by Rev. M. L. Donahy, Mr. Joseph Davis and Miss Laura E. Stremmel, both of Henry county, Ohio.

Lot of Life in them Yet.

People whose forty-fifth birthday is behind them fancy that their power to resist disease is lessened because a cough sticks to them a few days. They change their idea when they have tried The Pineola Balsam, for it goes right to the spot and makes the irritated throat well. The resinous substances in the pine and other trees will stop a cough every time if combined as they are in Ely's Pineola Balsam, which all wide-awake druggists have for sale at 25c.
